BERKLEY EASILY WINS HANDICAP

Despised Outsider Takes Feature Race at Belmont Park.

Belmont Park, N. Y., May 27—Berk-ley, a despised outsider, at 12 to 1, in the betting, easily won the Cosmopolitan Handicap, one and one-six-teenth miles, to-day. The victory was a great surprise. Shilling sent the Bedwell gelding right to the front, taking a five-lengths lead early. In the stretch, Berkley began to tire, but Shilling kept him going, and managed to win by a length from Arondack, an added starter, with Norbitt third, lam-bala and Donrante both ran bad races, trailing their fields all the way, Sum-maries maries

Wagner Muffs Two Easy Ones and Once Throws

Pittsburg, Pa., May 27 .- Six errors made Pittsburg's play a farce to-day, while Boston fielded perfectly behind Curtis's steady pitching, and won easily again, 6 to 1. Wagner was guilty of muffing two easy ones, and once throwing wild, while Sweeney, in the same position for Boston, made six of the twelve assists, and two put outs. The score:

Portsmouth and Danville Divide Honors in Yesterday's Games.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., May 27 .- Portsmouth and Danville divided honors winning by a big majority. The vic-tory of the visitors in the first game was due to the wonderful pitching of Vail, couple with the inefficient twiri-ing of Wold, who was taken out of the box in the second inning, with one man out, after he had yielded six hits. A total of six runs made in these innings was enough to dishearten the Tobac-conists, and their efforts during the conists, and their efforts during the remaining portion of the contest were of a feeble nature. The visitors' runs in the first two innings were made as a result of singles by Toner. Bowen. MacFarland. Clunk and Stafford's double. Clunk's home-run drive in the seventh, scored Stafford, who had doubled. Danville's only run came in the first inning, when Elckert was safe on Bowen's error, stole second and came home on Schrader's single. The score:

Second Game.

Cradit for Danville's victory in the second game is due principally to the magnificent work of Mayberry who alliowed but four hits and walked but one man. Portsmouth's only run was made when Bowen, the first man unconnected for a triple and scored on Cultient's single. Danville's runs were made by terrific and timely batting. In the third inning Rickert dupilicated Clunk's feat in the previous game by sending the ball over left field fence.

In the fourth, Laughtin doubled, took third on a sacritice and came home on Gaston's sacrifice fy to centre field. In the fourth, Larkins walked, took second on a sarrine and scored on Rickert's double fickert, who went to third on Griffin's out, then scored on Kunkle's error.

In the sixth, Gaston hit for three-sacks and scored on a squeeze play as a result of Toner throwing the ball.

Automobile Association met the Post cars down the pike. Among those who went out from Staunton were the officers of the association in their cars, as follows: Clarke Worthington, president; C. P. Bowman, vice-president; Frank T. Holt, secretary, and Frank P. Mc-Farland, treasurer, with their guests. They gave the Post cars a hearty welcome, as did the citizens of Staunton generally, and no attention was paid to speed as the cars whirled past, to the Hotel Beverly, headquarters. As the cars arrived each was photographed by the official photographen of the party, and an amusing incident was the approach of a yoke of oxen, driven by a man on horseback, which
